Y o u c a n n e v e r b e m i n e .

My name is Oda Isogu. I'm a newly recruited employee working for S Company, the business world's top company. I started this spring.

Up until college, my life was uninteresting. I had no girl-friend, no charm (looks, money or an obvious talent), and no luck. But I had a funny feeling that, that's when my life was really going to begin!

It was a certain day of a certain month.

A single sealed envelope arrived at the editorial department, with no return address.

I timidly break the seal. Upon opening, I find several sheets of stationery. It appears to be the rules to a game of some sort. Is this a written challenge from a reader?

The name of the game is Little White Liar's Paradox.

What angle are you trying to work here...?

And that's not just because I was hired by S Company, which everyone knows about, but also the pay is pretty great. What's more, if I take the offer and tell my friends, you can bet every last one of them will be crazy jealous!

...and also ... yeah ... also!

A-and... and my trainer is this incredibly beautiful woman; the kind that makes your jaw drop.

Her name is Touyuu-san. She's three years my elder... kind, pretty, an enchanting smile, amazing work ethic, and um... b-boobs — br-breasts. H-Her style is very... good...! She smells nice, and — what am I saying! A-Anyways, it feels like my life is starting to move forward!

...Would it be alright to talk about Touyuu-san a little more?

She invited me out to lunch today. While we were sitting there, I tried to summon up all of my courage and asked her a question.

"From a woman's perspective, when it comes to what they think of me — Is it good to come across as flashy; like I have some really cool hobbies and stuff like that?" I asked!

She looked into my eyes and said, "You're fine just the way you are."

.....Touyuu-san is so great. However, she's in a long distance relationship, you see; although I guess that's only natural. I was reading a comic the other day and someone in there said, "To those who think it's nice, not only is it natural for there to be an opponent, but because of that, inherently, you'll miss out on those precious encounters and interactions." and at that time I was thinking "that must be true!" but even so, that kind of thing...

Aah! It's so much fun, but it's certainly complicated! I-I!

...Ah, its Touyuu-san!

"Oda-kun, should we head out to lunch; or shall we go a little earlier and check the afternoon meetings one last time?"

Oh! S-Senpai is so cute... he... now's not the time to be infatuated!

Ummm.....

Check up on the meeting times [B]
